Absenteeism Hits Elementary School

Large Number Of Childhood Diseases

A rash of childhood diseases has swept through the elementary school age children this week, with 84 absent from school on Wednesday.

Principal Oscar Hinger said the absenteeism has been leveling off until Wednesday, but then it reached 84. It had been down to 64 on Monday.

County Health Officer Robert P. Jarrett said, "We have had a large number of children with childhood diseases, but it isn't in the epidemic stage. Most of the children absent from school have had colds or the flu, although some do have red measles and the three-day measles."

The Canyon Public School nurse, Mrs. Anna Beth Carlin, said most of the children out of school were absent because of bad colds, but there are some children in the elementary school out because of measles.

At Canyon junior high, only 37 of the 632 students were absent Wednesday and at high school only 24 out of 450 students were on the absentee rolls. School officials said this was about normal for absentees at the junior and senior high schools.

Ohio Farmer Will Speak Here Today

John Donaldson, farmer from New London, Ohio, will be principal speaker Thursday (today) at a regular meeting of the Canyon Conservative Club.

Donaldson will talk on administrative procedures of the Department of Agriculture.

Donaldson fought a constitutional case with the Department of Agriculture in 1956. He was sued for overplanting wheat acreage and his case is very similar to the Haley case, well known in this area.

Wes Izzard was principal speaker at the club's meeting last week.

Izzard, Amarillo newspaperman, answered a barrage of questions from an audience of almost 50 persons who attended the meeting.

Among other things, Izzard said reaction from home may be the deciding factor in whether Congress votes to buy $100 million in UN bonds as proposed by the President. If there is no strong reaction against this measure, it may pass, he said.

Izzard spoke out against a reciprocal postal agreement with Russia through which that country disseminates tons of communist propaganda in this

COMMISSIONERS TRY

Third Time For Bids On Voting Machines

Specifications on voting machines again highlighted a regular meeting of Randall County Commissioners Court Monday.

In a relatively short session commissioners voted to advertise once more for 30 machines that would pass Texas state laws and that were approved by the Secretary of State.

The court agreed after discussion to remove the wording, "equipped with automatic printed return mechanism," from their last bid. Such removal was made in order to attract at least one other bidder.

County Auditor E.T. Cummings said this will be the first time Randall County will have used voting machines. He said he thought only five other counties in Texas had them. The units are to be leased for one year then determined by public vote whether to buy them.

Another topic under court consideration was authorization to advertise for a patrol car for the Sheriff's Department. The vehicle was wrecked last week in a collision which injured Deputy Ray Tinsley.

Discussed briefly then tabled for further court debate was insurance rates on county buildings and approval of election judges.

Master Of Arts Sought At WTSC

Permission of the Texas Commission on Higher Education is being sought by West Texas State College to offer majors in chemistry, physics and mathematics leading to the Master of Arts degree.

The request, approved by the Board of Regents of Texas State Teachers Colleges and its curriculum committee, is a move to solidify an agreement of mutual assistance signed in December by WT and the Helium Research Center in Amarillo.

One of the provisions in the agreement with the Bureau of Mines was that WT would grant college credit toward academic degrees, along with providing fellows and students, laboratory equipment and facilities for research.

"The Board of Regents has also approved the offering of thesis courses in physics, chemistry, and mathematics, and a problems course in mathematics," said President James P. Cornette, "which will make possible majors in these departments toward the Master of Arts degree."

"We hope that the authorization for the majors toward the advanced degrees in these fields may be approved by next

EXPLORER SCOUT Mike Mathis reads to Boy Scout John Brandon and Cub Scout Craig Parker about the 51st anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. Canyon troops and posts are planning activities for Boy Scout Week, which started yesterday.

Canyon Scouts To Observe Fifty-First Anniversary

The fifty-first anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America will be observed by Canyon Scouts Feb. 7-13 as Scout Week.

Scouts in Canyon will observe this anniversary with a Court of Honor, attending church as a unit, good-will projects, camping trips and making window displays.

Scouting was brought to the United States in 1910 by William D. Boyce, a publisher from Chicago. He was in London in the fall of 1909 and was lost in a heavy fog when a young boy appeared to offer him help. The youth helped Boyce find the address he was looking for and when Boyce tried to pay the boy for his services, the youngsters refused saying he was a Boy Scout.

This moved Boyce and he gathered information on the scout movement in England and brought it to the United States. On February 8, 1910, Boyce and other interested men in the United States formed the Boy Scouts of America.

Caldwell said the police department is putting heavy emphasis on traffic violators who run stop signs, speed or illegally park.

During the past month, 69 persons were issued tickets for illegal parking, while eight received tickets for speeding, 13 for running stop signs and one for contesting for speed.

Break-down of other traffic violators include excessive noise, seven; failure to grant right away, two; negligent collision, two; no operators license, two; drunk, one; running stop light, seven; reckless driving, one; driving wrong direction on a one-way alley, one; and driving while license included a restriction.

As of Feb. 3, 74 tickets had been before City Court by Judge Dallas P. Clark. He had collected $415 in fines.

City Dads Award Paving Contract

City Commissioners in a special called meeting Monday afternoon awarded Centex Paving Company of San Antonio contract for the 1962 paving program.

Centex was the low bidder with a bid of $98,582.27 when bids were opened last week. The Commissioners also heard Consulting Engineer Bill McMorries discuss the rest of the program for the paving project. He told City Dads a protest hearing would have to be held in approximately six weeks. He also said a request for an ordinance needed to be prepared for the Centex Company to satisfy their attorneys.

Bill York, city manager, told the Commissioners all that would be necessary would be for a motion to delete the motion for the paving program and add the ordinance before the minutes are approved. McMorries explained that it was not taking away from the original intent and it was legal.

The Commissioners also appointed Jack Jennings as presiding election judge and Levi Cole as judge for the April 3 city election. York told the group final filing date was March 3 and application blanks were available to the public in his office.

MOD Collects Over $1,000

March of Dimes contributions reached a high in Canyon this year said Wayne Wirt, campaign chairman.

Wirt said all collections brought in $1,408.86. He said, "The Mother's March brought in $802.14 this year and was the single largest amount of money collected by any one method."

This year, the March of Dimes expanded their areas of research to include birth defects and arthritis.

Contributions sent in by mail totaled $267.61, while Canyon Elementary school collected $50.51, coin collectors displayed in local businesses, $170.46 and coffee money donated by local businesses $118.14.

Mrs. Barbara Wirt was chairman of the Mother's March and she had 60 women working Jan. 30 to raise the largest amount for the MOD from Canyon. The women were members of local women's clubs.

The chairman of the mailers, where envelopes were mailed to people in Randall County, was Bill York, while Oscar Hinger was in charge of collections at the elementary school.

Wirt said the Canyon Drug was the largest single business in collections with $118.

He also expressed his thanks for all workers who helped to make this year's MOD campaign a success.

2 Primaries Give Voters Wide Choice

Politics will be the main conversation over the coffee cups until the first primaries are held May 5. Voters will then have one of the largest fields to choose from in recent history.

For the first time, two primaries will be held on May 5. The democratic party will have competition from the republican party, who will have a slate of candidates.

Voters will have to make-up their minds which primary to vote in, as they can attend only one primary. Their poll tax receipt will be stamped as a republican or democrat, depending on which primary they vote.

Democratic party's slate: COMMISSIONER, precinct two - Clarence Beckman, Canyon, incumbent; and JoZach Byrd, Canyon. COMMISSIONER, precinct four - C.Y. Johnson, Amarillo, incumbent; and Hugh Porterfield, Amarillo.

J. EVETTS HALEY, JR., candidate for commissioner of agriculture, is shown here with his family. The youngsters are Jim and Mary Ann. Mrs. Haley is the former Frances Shaller of Canadian.

Haley Jr. Announces For Agriculture Post

After winning another round in his six-year battle with the US Department of Agriculture, Canyon Rancher J. Evetts Haley, Jr., Friday walked out of federal district court in Dallas and announced for Texas commissioner of agriculture.

The commissioner of agriculture is concerned largely with inspection, grading and enforcement of laws concerning agriculture.

"A vote for me will be a vote of non-confidence for the Cochran-Freeman farm program," said Haley as he made his announcement.

He is making the race on the Democratic ticket against incumbent John White. A republican, Harry Hubbard of Marfa, also is seeking the office.

Judge T. Whitfield Davidson made history as he ruled in the Haley case Friday. Possibly for the first time in history a jurist of a lower court openly rebuffed the black-robed members of the US Supreme Court.

Haley was charged with overplanting wheat on his Oklahoma farm in 1956. He was assessed a penalty of $506.11 for the 43 acres overplanting. The rancher says he fed the wheat thus produced to his cattle.

Poll Tax Up

Poll tax receipts were nearly as high as they were during the record 1960 year. Poll tax receipts totaled 9,005 in Randall County with 1,131 applying for exemptions.

County Tax Collector and Assessor Bill Money said receipts were 800 less than in the record year during election for U.S. President and other important offices.

During this year, city, county, state and national representatives to the House will be elected.

Past years poll tax receipts are:

1958-4,765 receipts, 531 exemptions; 1959-4,965 and 587; 1960-9,825 and 1,113; and 1961-9,825 and 1,113; and 1961-7,481 and 937.

The case was remanded to Judge Davidson's court but he judge did not enforce payment of the penalty.

Last week the Department of Agriculture pressed for payment in Davidson's court. It was then that Judge Davidson handed down the opinion which rebuffed the high court.

He cited the US Code which provides that appeals from a federal district court in this area must go to the US Court of Appeals in New Orleans. The USDA by-passed the New Orleans court and went directly to the Supreme Court.

Davidson ruled that the Supreme Court acted outside its jurisdiction in the Haley case. He again refused to enforce payment of the penalty.

"Neither myself nor my attorneys were notified that the Supreme Court was about to act on my case," Haley declared recently. "We were not even allowed to present arguments and were not present when the decision was handed down. The same day a convicted Russian spy was allowed time to present extensive arguments."

In announcing his candidacy for commissioner of agriculture, Haley charged incumbent

P-TA Will Hear Amarillo Doctor

Featured speaker for the Parent-Teacher Association meeting, Thursday, Feb. 15, will be Dr. Jaime Quintanilla of the Children's Psychiatric Center Inc., in Amarillo. The program is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Canyon High School auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

A graduate of the University of Nuevo Leon Medical School, Monterrey, Dr. Quintanilla took his internship at St. Mary's Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio. He also had three years in residency at the Warren, Pa., State Hospital and took additional training at the Graduate School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania. He served as a fellow at the Children's Service Center in Wilkes Barre for two years.

Dr. and Mrs. Quintanilla were both born in Linares, Mexico, and are the parents of two sons, Ricardo and Jimmy. They came to Amarillo in 1958. The Children's Center was established in October of 1958 for diagnosis and treatment of children in Amarillo who were suffering from emotional problems which could not be solved without professional help. These children range in age from infancy to 17 years.

The Center also works in cooperation with the Amarillo Cerebral Palsy Center in determining the physical and intellectual disabilities of the children in order that they may receive proper treatment.

It also assists the Potter County Child Welfare Unit, as well as the County Court of Domestic Relations, the Juvenile Probation department, public health nurses, the Amarillo Council for Mentally Retarded, and the hospitals located in Amarillo.

Time to make speeches before P-T. A. groups, clubs and organizations is given freely. The Center also serves as a training facility for psychiatrists

An Important Office

(AN EDITORIAL)

Who has heard of the office of commissioner of agriculture?

Very few people have. We did a turn around the square during the past few days and encountered less than a handful who know the name of the incumbent.

Even fewer knew the duties of that office holder.

The office of commissioner of agriculture is one of those obscure elective posts for which the electorate is asked to choose a man without knowing much about him... knowing even less about what he is supposed to do to earn his keep.

The incumbent has held the office a dozen years and is asking the electorate to extend that tenure to 14 without ever having taken the trouble to get acquainted with the people by whom he is employed—the people of Texas.

People knew little of the office of land commissioner until Bascom Giles—a long-time holder of that office—was caught up in the now infamous land scandal.

Wouldn't it be well for the people of this state to ask some searching questions about the office of commissioner of agriculture? Wouldn't it be well for the people of this state to ask the holder of that office just how he spends some million and a half dollars of their money each year?

Actually, during the past few years the office of commissioner of agriculture has become little more than a listening post for the US Department of Agriculture. John White, the incumbent, is little more than an errand boy for Secretary Freeman.

However, the office does have certain important functions. Among them is the responsibility for the seed certification program. Ask any producer of certified seed if that program is all that it should be.

For the above reasons and more, this newspaper is proud to range itself alongside J. Evetts Haley, Jr., in his campaign for the office now held by John White. In view of the record we could not do less.

If Haley is elected, he will be just one more barrier for the planners in Washington to hurdle in their efforts to usurp the liberty of the farmers of this state with ever tightening controls.

Haley is a man of integrity who has proved that he places principle before price. He is a young man who has battled the planners at their own game and in their own courts and sent them back to Washington with their tails between their legs.

It is high time we put some fighters in the offices of this state and nation. We think a good place to start is with J. Evetts Haley, Jr., as commissioner of agriculture.

Hilltop Views

BY DR. J. A. HILL

Way up in Ohio last December, at the little city of Oberlin (8,000 population) where an exceptionally well-reputed small college (about the size of West Texas State) is located a very unusual and praiseworthy circumstance occurred. The Oberlin News-Tribune named a woman "man of the year". Maybe that kind of thing has happened elsewhere heretofore, but to me it is something "new under the sun."

I see no reason why it has not been done many times, for there is plenty of feminine material and it merits public recognition. Furthermore, such a practice would stimulate the spirit of public service.

But aside from this incident's uniqueness the story out of Oberlin has other interesting features of considerable significance, one of which is the fact that the feminine "man of the year" is a former member of the faculty of West Texas State. Edna E. Haines is fondly remembered here as a Kindergarten teacher in the College Training School some 40 years ago. Those of us who remember the quality of her life are not surprised at the distinction she has won.

This column is indebted to our mutual friend and popular Canyon primary teacher, Miss Mae Simmons, for a copy of the editorial, part of which follows.

"For 'man of the year', the News-Tribune nominates Miss Edna Haines—former public school teacher and for the past 11 years librarian in the Oberlin elementary schools, — — —. "Miss Haines 'retired' in 1950 after a long teaching career— — — But retirement meant for her an immediate plunge into the task of creating a centralized library for Prospect elementary school, — — —.

"Working full time and entirely without pay, she induced parents to contribute books and soon got the PTA interested in building up the library. After six years the Board of Education was able to begin paying her on a half-time basis at a woefully modest hourly rate; she continued to work full time and to put in several weeks of work each summer in preparation for the start of classes. She still puts in the same long hours for half-time pay. — — —.

"One of her techniques in building a library is to use her own money generously; when a student wants a particular book and the allotment for new books is exhausted, she will buy the book with her own funds. One school official estimates that she puts as much back into new books as she receives in salary.

"With her overflowing love of books, she has made her libraries places of inspiration for young minds. Her contagious enthusiasm instills in her children as few people could a desire to read, to explore the wonderful world of books, — — —.

"Unlike our choices of previous years, she has not had her name in the headlines in connection with projects of civic betterment; she has not brought recognition to Oberlin by being elected to public office. Far from making headlines, she diligently shuns them. She resists having her picture taken for publication even when the circumstances of a given situation logically demand it. — — —.

"For her tangible additions to the libraries of two Oberlin schools, and for her immeasurable but immeasurable influence on the Oberlin youngsters with whom she comes into contact, we are pleased to name Miss Edna Haines our 'man of the year.' — — —.

Now, if that is not an inspiring human interest story I should not know where to look for one.

If that is not a conspicuous example of "service above self" pray, tell me where I can find such.

If that is not a glorious illustration of the opportunities and the rewards of dedicated teaching where in the world can it be found?

If there is a better definition of 'enlightened selfishness' than Miss Haines has put into practice let us have it. Such examples are needed in every community.

Miss Haines has completely and beautifully answered the question, which some time must present itself to every good heart, "What is life for?" The Oberlin News-Tribune, in recognizing Miss Haines as 'the man of the year', unintentionally pays high tribute to its own sense of values and the community's obligation to its own most valuable citizen.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Wilson Seeks Precinct Four As Republican

Warner Wilson, 35, partner in an electrical supply firm, has announced for Randall County Commissioner, Precinct 4, subject to the May 5 Republican Party primary.

"The citizens of Randall County have been denied the benefits of a two-party system too long," Wilson said in his announcement.

"Irresponsibility of county officials has been hid from the people because both the offender and other county officials were members of the same party."

"I believe in financially sound government based on the constitution. I believe there should be a minimum of government controls and no government competition with private business."

"I am running as a Republican because I want to express my opposition to the programs of the Democratic Party. The election of any Democrat will be accepted by state and national leaders of that Party as an endorsement of their policies, to which I am strongly opposed."

WARNER WILSON

Wilson, a native of Amarillo, is part owner of Wilson Supply Co., 1401 West 7th. He lives at 3308 Lewis Lane with his wife, the former Carolyn Bates, and their four children.

A 1945 graduate of Amarillo High School, Wilson served in the Navy two years. He is a member of Polk Street Methodist Church, and has coached teams in Kids, Inc. and in the YMCA Junior Baseball program.

"I will closely study the expenditure of county funds with a view toward reducing unnecessary spending, and cutting taxes where possible," Wilson said.

"It is time conservatives stood up and spoke out. I intend to offer the citizens of Randall County a clear choice between their present county commissioner and a conservative."

Byrd Announces For Precinct 2 As Democrat

The Canyon News has been authorized to announce the candidacy of JoZach Byrd for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct 2.

His candidacy is subject to action in the May 5 Democratic Primary.

Byrd grew up in Randall County. He is a 1941 graduate of Canyon High School.

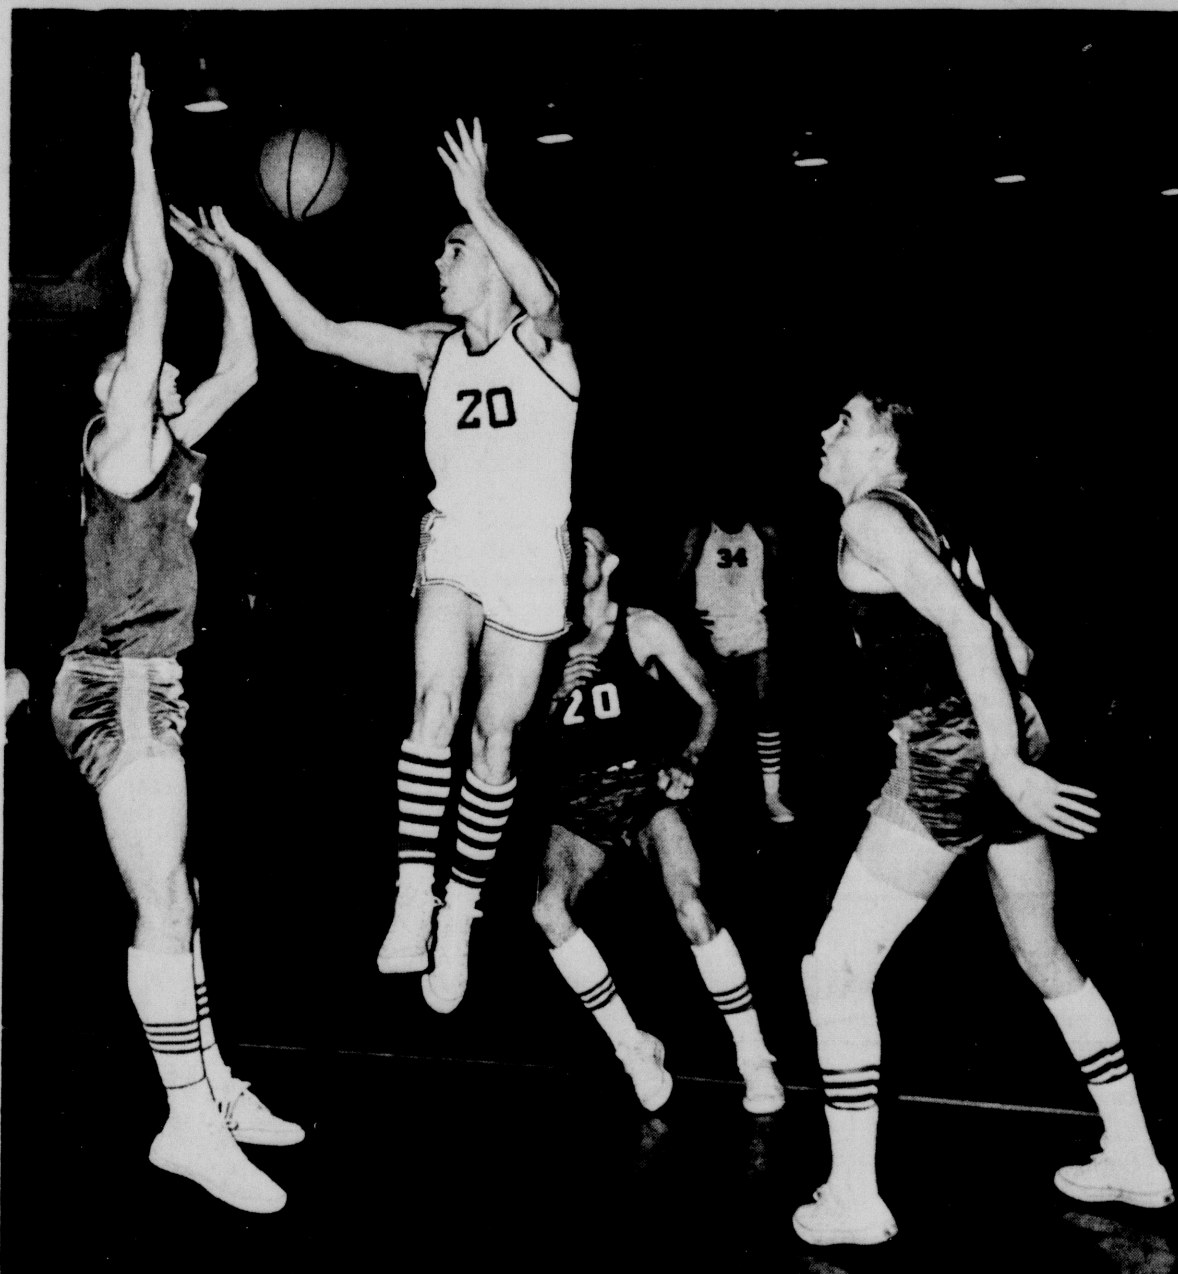

At present Byrd is a stock farmer and makes his home on a farm 11 miles southwest of town. He has never before been a candidate for public office.

Since reaching adulthood he has been a farmer most of the time. However, he was in insurance and real estate business from 1956 to 1958 and lived in town during that time.

"I feel that this will give me an insight into city as well as rural problems in county government," Byrd declared in making his announcement.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Byrd, Sr., long-time residents of the county.

Mrs. Byrd is the former Miss Dorothy Anderson. The couple have two children, Ben, 9 years old, and Dettie Marie, 4. He is a member of Canyon First Baptist Church, the Randall County Sheriff's Posse, and is a director of the Randall County Junior Livestock Association.

"I am for good roads and road improvement," Byrd said. "I am a conservative and believe in economy."

"If I am elected I pledge myself to represent the people of my precinct and my county to the best of my ability on the county's governing board."

Bobcats Edge CHS To Tie For Flag

Canyon's Eagles had their home game with Dimmitt won until 1:09 was left on the clock, but the Bobcats had their eyes on a share of the district flag and finally edged the Eagles 53-51 last Friday night.

Canyon took the lead early in the initial quarter, but Dimmitt fought back to lead in the scoring department until two minutes were left during this period before the Eagles went ahead.

Coach Allen Simpson's quintet lead the rest of the game until 1:09 when Ratcliff hit a set shot to tie the score 51-51. Wayne Rutherford took a pass and made a lay-up shot to ice the game for Canyon, but he walked with the ball with 37 seconds left and nullified the score.

Dimmitt brought the ball back down court. They worked the ball around until seven seconds was left and Calvert hit with a jump shot for the Bobcat win.

The Eagles played good the first three quarters, but when Dimmitt threw the full-court press against them during the fourth period, the Eagles fell apart. The CHS quintet threw the ball away four times in a row during this period on the press and Dimmitt cut the lead slowly but sure.

Canyon had four seconds left when they called time out. They threw the ball wildly trying to get it down court and the game was over.

As of Monday, Canyon had a 2-4 record in district play, losing to Tulla and Dimmitt twice. Tulla and Dimmitt lead the district with 5-1 records and if they should win the rest of their games a best-of-three series will determine the district winner.

Good defensive work by Wayne Rutherford kept the high scoring Calvert to only two field goals during the contest. They both came in the last quarter. However, Calvert hit 12 free throws to give him the high scorer honor for the game. Running account of the Dimmitt-Canyon game.

Four Seniors Play Last Game On Hardwoods For Eagles

Four seniors will don the uniforms of the Eagles on the hardwoods for their last time Friday night when they travel to Friona for their last district game.

These seniors are Warren Rutherford, Richard Green, Wayne Rutherford and Ronnie Harris. They have started in most of the games for Coach Allen Simpson.

A Canyon win would even their district record at 4-4. Canyon has lost to Dimmitt and Tulla twice, while they have defeated Dalhart twice and Friona once, by the tune of 56-31.

The Eagles have a 15-14 record for the season.

In their game played against Dalhart Tuesday night here, the Eagles easily defeated the Wolves 66-41.

The Eagles took the lead from the beginning and were never seriously threatened during the game. Canyon was ahead 15-8 at the end of the first quarter and 30-22 at halftime. The third quarter proved to be Canyon's best as they poured 24 points through the hoops while defending Dalhart to only seven points.

Warren Rutherford edged out brother Wayne for the high scoring honors for the game with 18 points. Wayne hit for 17 points.

WT Host Arizona State

Sun Devils Leading Border Conference

The West Texas Buffaloes could surprise everyone and knock down Arizona State's playhouse Saturday night, but it would really be a big surprise. The Buffs play the Arizona Sun Devils Saturday night in the WT gymnasium.

The Buffs are second in the Border Conference with a 2-1 record, while the Arizona State Sun Devils are 6-0. The slim, but very slim chance of WT pulling this upset could put the Buffs in a good position in the conference race, if they should win the rest of their games.

West Texas has slowly been improving from a dismal start and are potentially dangerous at any moment if they should explode with their shooting. Against Oklahoma City University Monday, the Buffs hit the baskets for 106 points, but lost to OC who scored 129 points.

The Buffs have the scoring ability and if they should hit against Arizona State and then play a good defensive game, the upset could be made against the Sun Devils.

Last Saturday the Sun Devils stopped a strong Texas Western quintet in Tempe 68-62. This was the second time the Sun Devils have beaten Texas Western.

Next Tuesday the Buffs will host Arizona in a non-conference battle for the WT quintet's last non-conference battle.

Coach Metz LaFollette will probably start Scottie Pierce, George Scott, Jim Curtsinger, Frank Schaffer and David Seal against these two teams.

Against Oklahoma City Monday night, both club were pouring the field goals through the baskets at a rapid pace. The pace was so fast, OC scored 129 points and West Texas hit for 106 points, the first time this year for them to hit over 100 points.

WT hit 41 of 77 field goals attempted for a percentage of 53.2 and the OC Chiefs connected on 48 out of 87 for a 55.2 percentage.

West Texas was just five shy of their all-time scoring record set in 1941-42 against Eastern New Mexico.

The Buffs lost the ball 26 times by traveling violations and bad passes. This slowed down their chances of keeping close to the high flying Chiefs.

Five of the Buffs scored in the double digits. They are Sonny Blankenship with 11; George Scott, 14; Scottie Pierce, 14; David Seal, 24; and Jim Conner, 19.

12 Acres Burned By Grass Fire

Two small boys believed playing with matches were reported responsible for setting a large grass fire Friday afternoon on the Arch Hunsley place north of the city.

Hunsley said two boys about 10-years-old accidentally set the fire and could not put it out when wind whipped it out of control.

Canyon volunteer firemen fought the blaze over a wide area which burned an estimated 12 acres of weeds and tall grass. A spokesman for the fire department said the blaze was fought for about four hours before it was brought under control. The fire fighters returned a second time before finally extinguishing the burning underbrush.

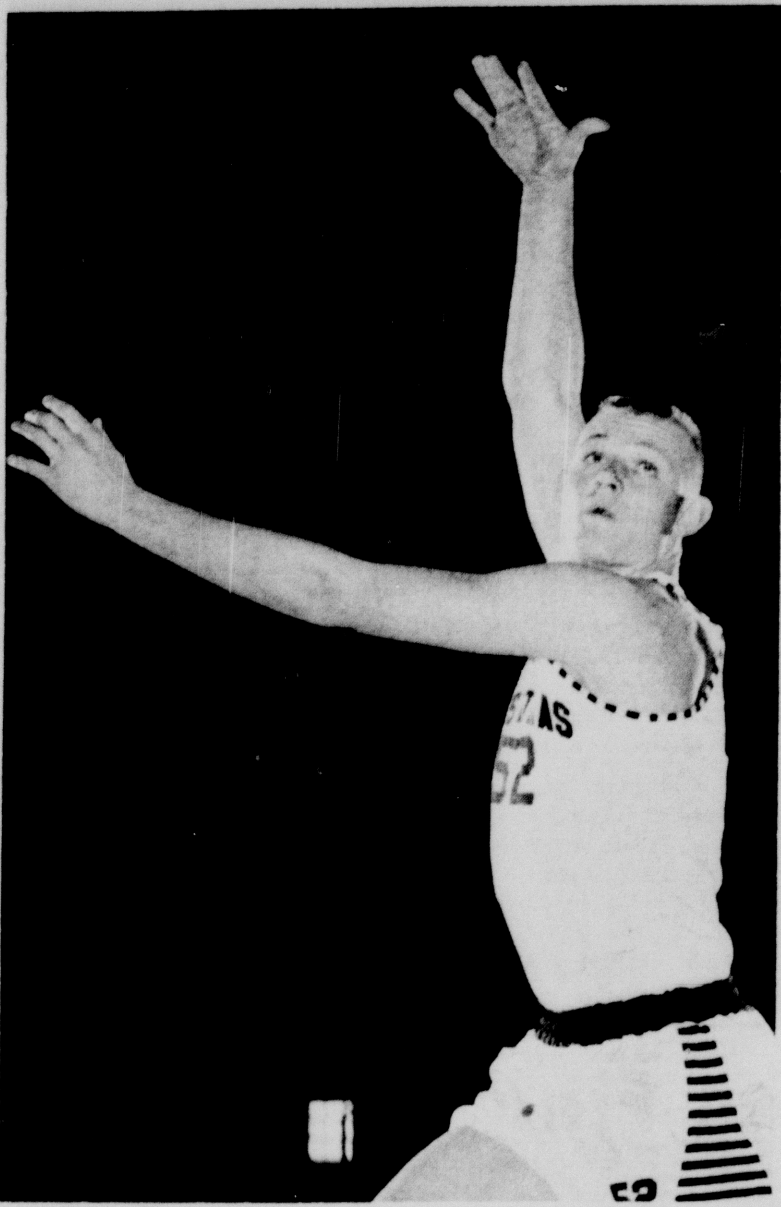

Severe damage was reported to large trees near the creek bottom. Hunsley said he regretted the grass being destroyed since it provided ideal cover for quail and pheasant.

The landowner said if the wind had been from the north, the blaze could have swept across his golf course. Firemen were hampered with the use of only one truck, which was needed in numerous places at once.

B Team Beats Dalhart 57 - 27

The "B" team led 13-8 at the end of the initial quarter and 31-14 at the end of the first half. Score at the end of the third period was Canyon 47, Dalhart 19.

Glen Metcalf was top scorer of the game with 11 points. Other "B" team members scoring were George Cox, 10; Steve Burgess, six; Eddie Poole, six; Bobby Evans, five; Don Breitling, five; Davis Price, five; Wayne Collin, three; Don Rhoades, two; Alex deSchweinitz, two; Jody Richardson, two; Bill Albracht, two.

Tally Sheet

By Marvin Ellis

Ray Franks, sports publicist at West Texas State, was disappointed in the selection of the Panhandle Athlete of the Year. He justly points out Pete Pedro was honored as Associated Press Back of the Week, made third team All-American on the NEA poll as a sophomore, led the nation in touchdowns scored with 22 and was on a nation-wide television show, NBC's "Here and Now."

Ray said Pete's football playing brought more national news to the Panhandle than anyone else has ever done in the field of sports.

He said this alone should have given Pete the Panhandle Athlete of the Year.

And considering all the publicity Pete did receive from national sports wires, television cameras and all the rest, I go along with Ray's views that the name of this organization should be changed from Hall of Fame to Hall of Frame.

Eighth Grade Girls Win Second Place

Canyon's eighth grade girls won runner-up position in the Silverton Tournament last week-end losing to Silverton 12-17 in the finals.

To gain right to go to the finals, the Canyon lassies beat Happy in their first game 20-18 and then Lockney 24-21 in an overtime affair.

In the championship battle, Becky Price led Canyon with six points. During this game, both teams couldn't make a point the first quarter, but Silverton scored eight while Canyon made only two points during the second period.

During the third period, Canyon's team scored four more points, while Silverton made five points. However, the Canyon lassies outscored Silverton the last quarter, five points to four.

Two File For Trustees

Secretary of the Canyon School Board, Mrs. Clay Cooper, said this week that two new candidates have filed for trustee position on the board.

As of last week: Pete Cowart, concessionaire at Palo Duro State Park, had stated his intention to enter the race. He filed for application the latter part of the week.

The other applicant for one of the three expiring board positions was Jerry LaGrone, owner of the LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Neither A.C. Haley, Jr., president; nor W.W. Sternenberg have yet filed for re-election. Walter Graham is the only incumbent who has placed his name on the ballot.

Filing deadline is March 8. Election date is Saturday, April 7 at the American Legion Hall.

There will be a faculty recital presented in the Fine Arts Auditorium on the campus of West Texas State, Monday, Feb. 12, at 4 p.m. Emmet Harstine, brass instructor, and Rowie Durden, woodwind instructor, will render a program of classical, romantic and modern music.

Durden has been a member of the college faculty for three years, and Harstine is new this year. Both musicians are members of the Amarillo Symphony. Accompanists will be Mrs. Gaynell Wheeler and Bill Evans, also on the W.T. music faculty.

Miss Melinda Dalley, cellist, will join with Durden and Mrs. Wheeler in the performance of a Beethoven trio. There is no admission charge, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Car License Sale Slow Says Money

Car tags must be on car by April 1, and the annual license fee for registration of a passenger car is based upon the

Mop Fire Smolders At School

Canyon firemen were called out Wednesday to battle a smoldering mop in the broom closet of Canyon High School.

Officials, both fire and school, believed the mop was ignited by some practical joker. Smoke filled the east end of the building, causing students to rush into the hall for investigation.

Two fire trucks and police units made the call.

County Court Hears 7 Cases

In seven cases heard Monday by Judge Wayland Angel in Randall County Court, six persons pleaded guilty to various misdemeanor charges.

Among the six charged were four West Texas State College students. They were fined $25 and costs on charges of theft under $50.

They are Randall Olin Rhone, 24, of Lott; Samuel Wayne Sizemore, 18, and William B. Sizemore Jr., 24, of 2800 Brentwood, Odessa; and David Lynn Anderson, 21, of 509 SW 14th, Seminole.

Jimmy Wilson, of 2427 NW 15th of Amarillo, was fined $25 and cost on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Jim Cook, 1003 8th Ave., Canyon, was also charged with theft under $50.

Deputy Sheriff Calvin Costley said five of the young men had been stealing parts to fix up a hot-rod. Extensive investigation by Costley broke the case.

The seventh case heard was a plea of not guilty for aggravated assault. A $500 bond was posted.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wright have returned from Abilene where they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wells and Carolyn Gray. Mrs. Wright's niece, Carolyn Gray, a student at West Texas State College, accompanied them to Abilene.

HALLEY ANNOUNCES

bent White with being an "errand boy" for the US Department of Agriculture. He linked White with the Kennedy-Johnson liberals of the Democratic Party.

Haley proudly declares that he has never accepted a cent in subsidy. He points out that had he chosen to do so he and his rancher father could have cashed in on thousands in drought relief and other subsidies in recent years.

Haley was born in 1931 in Austin while his father was associated with the museum at the University of Texas as collector of historical artifacts. He started to school in Canyon and is a graduate of West Texas State High School.

He attended Schreiner Institute at Kerrville and went to the University of Texas where he studied history, government and English. He has a background of farming and ranching.

Mrs. Haley, the former Miss Frances Shaller of Canadian, also has a farming and ranching background. The couple was married in 1954 and have two small children, Jim and Mary Ann.

At one time Evetts was employed by Dan Smoot as a researcher and writer for The Dan Smoot Report. At present he is engaged in farming and ranching and as a property manager for others in the agricultural industry.

In making his announcement Haley released the following statement:

"Since 1956, along with many other farmers, I have been carrying on an almost continuous fight with the United States Department of Agriculture. I have carried this fight to the United States Supreme Court, I have carried it to my elected representative in Congress. Ultimately my challenge of a law, declared immoral and unconstitutional by a great and eminent Texan on the lower federal bench, has been rebuffed.

"More recently I have challenged the bureaucracy and its grossly unjust edicts under the framework of the law. As many other proud and independent farmers have learned such challenges are frustrated by bureaucratic red-tape and buck-passing, mine was no exception. As a result of this latest challenge I may again appear in the federal courts.

"In the meantime it is as a continuing part of this same fight for freedom to farm and the Constitutional and Christian right of every man to the free use of private property, that I am today, humbly offering myself to the voters of Texas as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Commissioner of the Texas Department of Agriculture.

"My primary purpose in making this campaign is to give to the consumers and taxpayers of Texas who foot a major portion of the multi-billion dollar bill for a collectivized agriculture, the opportunity to learn of and to vote no confidence in Cochran-Freeman program, aimed at further regimenting and ruining a once independent and prosperous segment of our economy.

"My primary purpose upon being elected will be to give the people of Texas an honest, economical, and efficient administration of the Department of Agriculture.

"I oppose a long time incumbent commissioner who has used the good offices of a state post as a major propaganda voice in support of federal tyranny over Texas agriculture.

"The Secretary of Agriculture of the United States is a political appointee, a man rewarded under the spoils system for political services rendered. Neither farmers nor voters in general have any choice in his selection. But those Texans who vote for Evetts Haley, Jr., will be voting against him and against his errand boys on the state payroll in Austin. They will be voting for a man who stands on a platform founded on the tenth article of the Bill of Rights: "Those powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively or to the people."

"The great Constitutional jurist, Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, has held, and so had every United States Supreme Court decision prior to 1938, that the Constitution grants no authority to the federal government to regiment American Agriculture.

"In supporting me Texans will certainly be voting against Supreme Court decisions abrogating states rights in the field of Agriculture as well as all other—they will certainly be voting for more efficient and

Amarillo Man Charged With Theft Over $50

Avlin Ray Brackeen, 19-year old Amarillo man, has been arraigned in Justice of the Peace Court by Judge Bill Wilson for theft over $50, a felony.

Brackeen, who lives at 430 E. Slope, is charged in connection in a theft of a 1962 Pontiac from Rex Loftis, a former Canyon City Policeman.

Judge Wilson set bond at $1,000.

T and T Club Holds Covered Dish Lunch

Mrs. G.E. Wesley was hostess to the T and T Club for an all-day meeting Friday. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Attending were Madge Sutton, Annie Read, Grace Schaeffer, Evelyn Shipman, Annie Wesley, Judy Shipman, and Letha Patterson.

Next meeting will be an all-day meeting with Letha Patterson. Members will help quilt. Letha Patterson, a new member, won the drawing.

Mrs. H. C. Long has been in Canyon to visit with her sister, Mrs. Richard Gidden, and in Kress with other relatives. Mrs. Long resides in Fairhope, Alabama.

Mrs. Lula Myers visited with relatives in Portales, New Mexico, one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Fanning of Canyon were in Commerce recently to visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Fanning.

conservative administration of a department that will spend $1,204,664 tax dollars this year.

"In supporting me Texans will be voting against arbitrary and non-sensical regulations and edicts emanating in the Texas Department of Agriculture.

"My friends and I pledge an energetic, hard, state-wide campaign of fact against fancy, of responsibility against special interest, of Constitutional principle against socialist theory.

"We will draw battle lines of conservatives vs. liberal, more imaginatively and more effectively than they will be drawn in any other state-wide race.

"If elected I will not ask the Legislature for a pay raise or for a bigger Departmental budget and I certainly will not ask the people of Texas for fourteen years in office.

"I will continue to cooperate with the American Farm Bureau Federation, of which I am a member, and support its great leadership and join it in opposing federal farm tyranny wherever proper and in supporting helpful programs on the state level where feasible and legal.

"I am a cattleman and agricultural manager for other farmers and cattlemen. In these lines of work I have sought to live as an independent American relying for security upon myself rather than upon benevolent government.

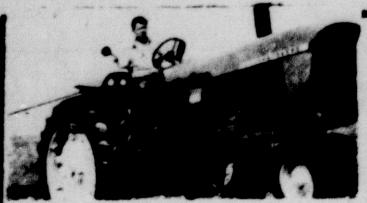

"I value individual freedom and dignity above all else. I belong to organizations which I believe are furthering the cause of freedom. They include the Farm Bureau, Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, Texas Sheriff's Association, Texans for America, Panhandle Texans for Constitutional Government and The Canyon Conservative Club. I belong to no other organizations of political influence."

MRS. IRENE BALL, Canyon junior high English teacher, shows Lou Ann Cowart and David Yarbrough how to work a 35 mm filmstrip projector. Mrs. Ball uses this projector in teaching sentence structure and parts of speech in a dynamic method of presentation.

Visual Aids Help Jr. High Instructors With Teaching

Many tools are used in teaching, and Canyon junior high uses all tools available to give the youth a better education. The tool used most often is audio-visual aids. Principal L.H. Brotherton said "audio-visual education helps the teacher to better present a lesson and to assist with teaching the printed word."

This form of education changes the routine of classwork and adds interest to the work being presented.

Brotherton said, "It has been demonstrated time after time visual teaching is the best method."

A teacher who gives reading assignments can better explain to her students with filmstrips, movies or single pictures difficult matter not easily understood. For an example, a history teacher talking about the founding of our country can make a deeper impression with a sound movie depicting Patrick Henry with his fiery speech in legislature than by reading it herself.

At Canyon junior high, two tape recorders, one 35mm film projector, two 16 mm movie projectors, an opaque machine and a science projector help teachers in their lessons with students.

The 35 mm film slide and strip projector are in constant use. The school owns 30 strips which assist teachers and they can order any other aids they need.

The junior high teachers have used 38 films so far this school year and have approximately 25 more on order to show before the year is completed.

The opaque projector uses material which can not usually be cut from books or magazines. A teacher can obtain a rare book and show pictures or other visual material to a class with this projector.

An aid which helps science teachers is a projector which projects an image of microscopic organism large enough for the complete class to see at one time.

All classes in junior high use some type of visual aids to assist in teaching, that includes English classes to physical education classes.

Dr. Cornette Plans Trip

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State College, will be in Chicago Feb. 13-17 to attend the annual meetings of the Association of State Colleges and Universities and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

Among speakers for the two meetings will be Edward R. Murrow, director of the United States Information Agency; Charles "Bud" Wilkinson, consultant to the President on youth fitness; and Sterling M. McMurrin, United States Commissioner of Education.

Canyon Student Awarded BS Degree

Lon Fanning of Canyon was one of approximately 150 students awarded bachelor's and master's degrees by East Texas State College, Commerce, at Winter Commencement on Tuesday, Jan. 30.

Fanning received a B.S. degree in technical agriculture. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Fanning, Canyon.

George Dowlen Enters Randall DA Campaign

George Dowlen has authorized The Canyon News to announce his candidacy for the office of Randall County Criminal District Attorney.

His candidacy is subject to action in the May 5 Democratic Primary.

Dowlen is a native of Canyon. He is 27 years old and has lived here all his life.

He is a 1952 graduate of Canyon High School. He attended West Texas State College and received his degree in law from the University of Texas.

He served in the US Army as an enlisted man and has been Amarillo city attorney for more than a year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dowlen. His father is a Randall County commissioner.

Dowlen has had considerable experience in prosecution during his 14 months as Amarillo city attorney. The corporation court docket there has been crowded with work on varied cases being carried on in the court.

"I feel that I am aware of problems in South Amarillo after having served the city during the past year," Dowlen declared in announcing his candidacy. "Likewise, I feel that I am aware of problems in Canyon and rural part of the county because I have lived there all my life."

"Knowledge of these problems is almost a prerequisite to finding solutions."

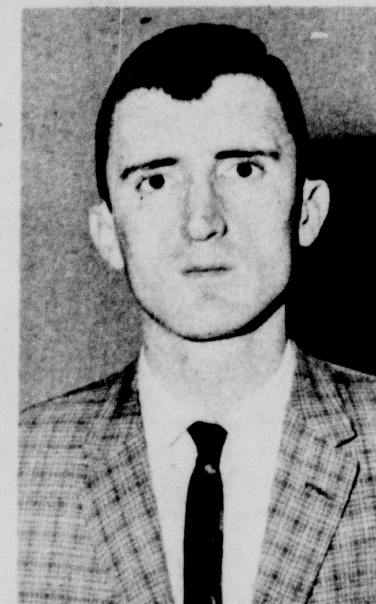

"I think one primary responsibility of the criminal district attorney is to be available to the public as the public prosecutor and legal adviser to county officials."

"I promise to be available to the people of Randall County if elected. I also promise vigorous prosecution of all cases of law violation which come to my attention."

"I earnestly solicit your support and influence in the May 5 Democratic Primary."

Dowlen is a member of the Methodist Church.

Austin, Feb. 1--Unless there is a miscarriage of plans, by the time this is read, Hon. Richard Bowman, who represents the Panhandle section in the lower house of the Texas legislature, will have a bill before that body seeking to use the money obtained from the big Waters-Pierce Oil Company for the purpose of purchasing Palo Duro Canyon and connecting the same into an enormous State park for the benefit of all the people of Texas.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 24--"People are simply land mad, that's the best way to put it," says W.F. Halsell, one of the richest men in Oklahoma. He refused to state just how much land he owns, but he admitted he refused nearly $2,000,000 for his Texas holdings.

"Practically every cattleman in Texas is forced out of the business by the hungry horde of land seekers. The day of the so-called 'cattle barons' has passed and gone, and the man with the hoe is supreme. The farmer is the coming baron of the cattle, and the poor 'long horn' raiser will soon be a thing of the past. In fact, he has been walking around for several years to save funeral expenses."

This seems to be an off year in the matter of payment of poll taxes in this county. Only a total of 371 were paid in the eight precincts.

The Canyon to Amarillo paved highway project entered its final stage today when the state highway department advertised for bids on paving the entire stretch of road between the two cities.

It will soon be time for the junior-senior banquet, scheduled for the last of March. The Junior Class is in charge of the banquet each year, and members are again rushing to make plans in order to have a

Firemen Kept Busy Fighting

Canyon volunteer firemen were kept on the run Saturday, battling four grass fires and a burning fence, two occurring within a few minutes of the other.

The first call came shortly after 1 p.m. when firemen rushed to the T.H. Foster residence one mile east of Canyon to extinguish a grass fire.

A second, and similar fire, broke out at 3:40 p.m. at the John Martinez place in the 400 block of 1st Street. Within 10 minutes firemen were answering a third call for help.

This time they put out a blazing stubble field on the Jim Christopher place one mile east on the Palo Duro Highway.

Fire Marshal Jack Jennings said the largest fire was flaming pasture land on the E.L. Barnett ranch near Buffalo Lake. Firemen worked from 4:13 p.m. until well after 7 p.m., according to the Fire Department's log.

Saturday night, near 10 p.m., burning trash was said to have caught a fence on fire at 2701 7th Ave., ending the day's fire-fighting.

None of the fires was reported to have caused serious damage. Sunday, firemen extinguished a grass fire at 1218 5th Ave. which burning trash was said to have ignited.

Plainview Chapel Is Scene Of Waddell-Patrick Wedding

Mrs. Roy Franklin Patrick

Miss Bea Waddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Waddell, Plainview is the bride of Roy Franklin Patrick, Amarillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.K. Patrick of Quitaque.

Wedding vows were exchanged January 27, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in the chapel of the Plainview First Baptist Church. Dr. Roy C. McClung, minister, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Billy Webb played traditional wedding selections at the organ, and accompanied Miss Wanda Dickson of Littlefield as she sang, "O Perfect Love", and as the benediction, "Bless This House."

Forming the background for the rites was a candelabra arch with lighted tapers, baskets of chrysanthemums, gladioli and palm greenery. Blue bows with white bells marked the reserved pews.

Miss Wanda Jean Gudgel of Mobeetie was the maid of honor. She wore a dress of royal blue satin, styled with bell skirt, rounded neckline and brief cap sleeves. She carried a colonial bouquet of white mums with streamers of white ribbon. Her headpiece was a bandeau with white veil attached.

Best man was Charles

Melton, a cousin of the bride, from Lubbock. Ushers were A.E. Patrick, Quitaque, brother of the bridegroom; Louis Waddell, Jr., Plainview, brother of the bride, and Lonnie Shoemaker, also of Plainview.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta, styled with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant floor length skirt of taffeta was banded with lace, and her veil of silk illusion was held by a queen's crown of seed pearls.

A most interesting book on art reached my hands this past week-end. It is called "A Book of Pottery--From Mud Into Immortality" by Henry Varnum Poor.

He wishes to help his reader feel the importance of reaching success when they lack the "purely technical" know-how.

He says, "So in using clay as a medium, whether making pots or ceramic sculpture or modeled plaques or whatnot, the know-how which I want to talk about will be always a rule-of-thumb, skill of hand, or primitive trial and error basis, rather than one proceeding from a knowledge of chemistry, or exact technical processes--which knowledge I do not have. Although I have regretted the lack of this knowledge, I have become more convinced through the years that this lack may have been an asset."

I think that not only our present day art, including that of ceramics, but our whole present day civilization is engaged in a life and death struggle with the forces of technique, of mass production, of conformity in all that surrounds us physically, and that inevitably works its way into our spiritual and intellectual life and determines our creative life. That machine and mass production produces the leisure by which our inner life can soar to new heights is, I think, a tragic fallacy more recognized with the passing of every year.

Art is an expression of each person's rediscovery of the universe. To produce a living and vital art this discovery must begin close to the beginning, or the result is only a synthetic art. The beginning for pottery is clay.

Earth I am, it is most true Disdain me not, for so are you.

This is a motto on an old English plate.

This book was dedicated in this fashion: In the year of Outer Space and Sputniks this book is dedicated to EARTH.

For some reason we have heard, read, been taught and have almost been forced to believe that in the future there will be no room for anyone but the technicians, the scientists, the person who can push the right buttons, and the non-thinker.

Only last week there was an article in the News-Globe by John T. Cuniff called Liberal Arts Grad Facing Cold World.

But on the opposite side of the fence, Dr. Paul E. Torrance, Bureau of Educational Research, University of Minnesota, wrote an article in NEA Journal on "Stress" and summing up his remarks one could feel he was in sympathy with the person who learns to think with imagination, to explore, to make decisions, to be understood better and to be loved.

No matter how many rules there are, how many great facts there are, or how much technical skill one can obtain, under stress all is wasted. Even pride of one's small accomplishments has disappeared.

It is like the old story that you must eat spinach if you expect to grow up to be strong. All the words written, all the facts taught, all the one-way-of-doing-things can't mean very much if they are forced on an unwilling receiver. People and clay have much in common.

Croson Family Found Opportunities For Better Living After Moving to Canyon

MRS. MARY CROSON

(A feature story on Mrs. Croson, one of Canyon's pioneer women, had been planned months ago; it is regretted that it was not written before her death - Editor's note)

1907 was a year of "Panic" in the United States; potatoes sold for 25 cents a bushel for the top quality; eggs were 8 cents a dozen; banks closed throughout the land. Discouragement and unemployment were everywhere, but for N.A.

and Mary Elizabeth Croson, farming folk in Virginia, the "Panic of 1907" brought planning for the years ahead; there was much serious talk, for this was a time when many families of the "Old States" were thinking of the West, which seemed their only hope of a better life.

Toward the end of her life, Mrs. Croson said, "My best friend said 'Go west'; its your only chance to be somebody and have something; hold your head high and work hard". The young Crosons had no idea how hard the years would be, but 1908 found them, along with 100 other families, under the promotional guidance of Joe Garrison, on their way to Randall County which was to be the family home until Mrs. Croson's death a short time ago.

Drouth forced Mr. Croson to find employment in Canyon, and for some years he carried the mail, and did whatever work was available in the little windswept town.

When, in November, 1909, Canyon was chosen as the location for what is now West Texas State College, the Crosons rejoiced, for they knew that somehow they would be able to provide education for their children, and when the demonstration school opened there were Croson youngsters enrolled, and there continued to be members of the family on the campus until Margaret (Mrs. Roy Ransom), received a bachelor's degree in Art in 1939, still later, Frances, (Mrs. Carroll Johns) received a master of arts degree in Art in 1950, as C.O. had done in music in 1941.

How the children were able to go to college, is the story of Mrs. Croson's life from 1918, on, for that year Mr. Croson died; the children were five girls and three boys, the youngest two years of age.

In 1918, widows did not return to school to prepare to make money for their needs; mothers did not work outside their homes either. So keeping boarders, sewing for people less skilled than she, where what she "turned her hand" to do. Mrs. Croson loved music, and the children were talented in music and in art, which made their college work more expensive, but also helped them to finance it.

Said Helen, now Mrs. Newton Harrell, "I played myself through high school and college. Beginning in the days of the silent movies, when my music was likely to stop when the picture got exciting, if someone didn't remind me to keep playing. I always played better the second night of the show. It was fun to play for dances, but I never got to dance. College was a cinch as I played for chorus and orchestra, physical education classes, assembly and operettas. Mother saw to it that I didn't miss any of these".

All the children helped themselves in whatever ways they could; for four years Blanche (Mrs. Austin Fullingim) worked in the Post Office; at one time C.O. was janitor at the Presbyterian church; all helped with the work at home.

Said one of the daughters,

"We were never aware that we had any less than anybody else; we always looked as nice as any of our friends. That was because of Mother's good management, and her ability to make over clothes".

During the years of struggle, nobody ever heard Mrs. Croson complain; she was no whiner; she saw worth in other people, and created worth and beauty as she went along. Somehow she had time for pick-up work, and made quilts so beautiful that they will be cherished heirlooms of children and grandchildren.

Faith went along with her love of beauty, and every Sunday found the family in pew or choir at the Presbyterian Church. People enjoyed seeing the freshly scrubbed, combed, fluffed and pressed young people file in. From church friends Mrs. Croson had much comfort and help. "There was member," said Frances, "to whom Mother always turned for advice and help in connection with anything from a leaky faucet to an elopement, for anything was likely to happen at our house."

When the time came that her children were scattered, and doing their work in many places, Mrs. Croson was so young in spirit that she had no notion of sitting back in a rocking chair. Opportunity came for trips by bus and car to many parts of the United States.

Dr. Ples Harper who was in charge of some of these said, "Mrs. Croson was one of the best travellers we ever had". Trips to Hawaii, to Europe to Mexico and to Cuba were made when she was almost four score years old. Returning from each she said "I saw so many beautiful things, and the people I met were just wonderful."

This reflected her attitude toward life from the time she left the hills of Virginia to come to the Panhandle of Texas, so that her children could "be somebody" and the hard work was counted as a small price for such reward.

Variety Club Meets Friday Afternoon

Mrs. P.L. Pitt was hostess to the variety Ring in her home Friday afternoon with fourteen members answering roll call. After a brief business session, Valentine refreshments were served.

Present were a guest, Mrs. J.C. Hutchinson, and Mesdames Leonard Winters, Fred Marshall, W.L. Rice, Jeannette Robbins, George Barker, Win Matsler, Mae Johnson, K.E. Hines, J.P. Hammons, Earl Burtz, Lang Hunter, Levi Cole, Rae Walters, and the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Leslie Neal, Feb. 16.

MRS. CROSON and her granddaughter, the former Shirley Harrell, now Mrs. Bill Howse of Wichita, Kans., are shown on a tour of Mexico.

ARE YOUR PRESENT AUTOMOBILE LIMITS ADEQUATE TO PROTECT YOU?

Every day more and more people seek redress for auto injuries, and every day the settlements seem to grow higher and higher. Therefore, it's important to you to make sure the limits you carry are high enough to protect you in the event you are involved in an accident resulting in a law suit.
